The Episcopal Church and the Immigrant

Just as you did it to one of the least of these
who are members of my family,
you did it to me.

(Mt 25:39b)

Who do you think is “illegal”?

Who do you know
who's here without documentation?

How do you know that the person next to you is a citizen or has a visa?

Who do you know
who's here without documentation?

How could you possibly know?

What makes you think that?

More than 11 million undocumented immigrants live in the U.S.

Myth: Too Many Immigrants to be Assimilated

General Convention 2006

Re: Enforcement

- 1st Resolve: “ ... while recognizing the duty and right of a sovereign nation to protect and defend its borders”
- 2nd Resolve: “deplores any action ... which unduly emphasizes enforcement, including militarization of the border between the United States and Mexico, as the primary response to immigrants entering the United States to work”

General Convention 2006

Fundamental Immigration Principles

- Reasonable opportunity for permanent residency.
- Legal workers allowed to enter U.S. as needed by U.S.
- Reunite family members without undue delay.
- Legal due process should be granted to all persons.
- Border enforcement should be proportional and humane.

Not Asking for a Free Ride

Sample provisions for “earned adjustment”:

- Working in the U.S., 5 years or longer
- No criminal record or gang activity
- Forgiven some crimes to enter, live or work in U.S.
- Must go to a port of entry to apply.

But, “Enforcement Only” Is Just a Partial Answer

- Undocumented immigrants already in the U.S.
 - If they leave, they can't return
 - If they stay, they can't visit their families abroad and their families can't visit them.
 - Eventually, they'll be deported - you won't be lucky forever.
- Undocumented people who grew up in the U.S.
 - Some have been here all their lives
 - Many don't know their native tongue.
 - Some are ready for college and many are offered scholarships.

Consider the cruelty of “enforcement only”

- Splits “mixed” families (with documented & undocumented members)
- Splits border communities & wrecks their economies
- Children experience greater fear and poverty.
- The shadows in which they live get darker.
- While jobs remain open, trained & available workers can't be employed, e.g. the harvest.

General Convention 2006
